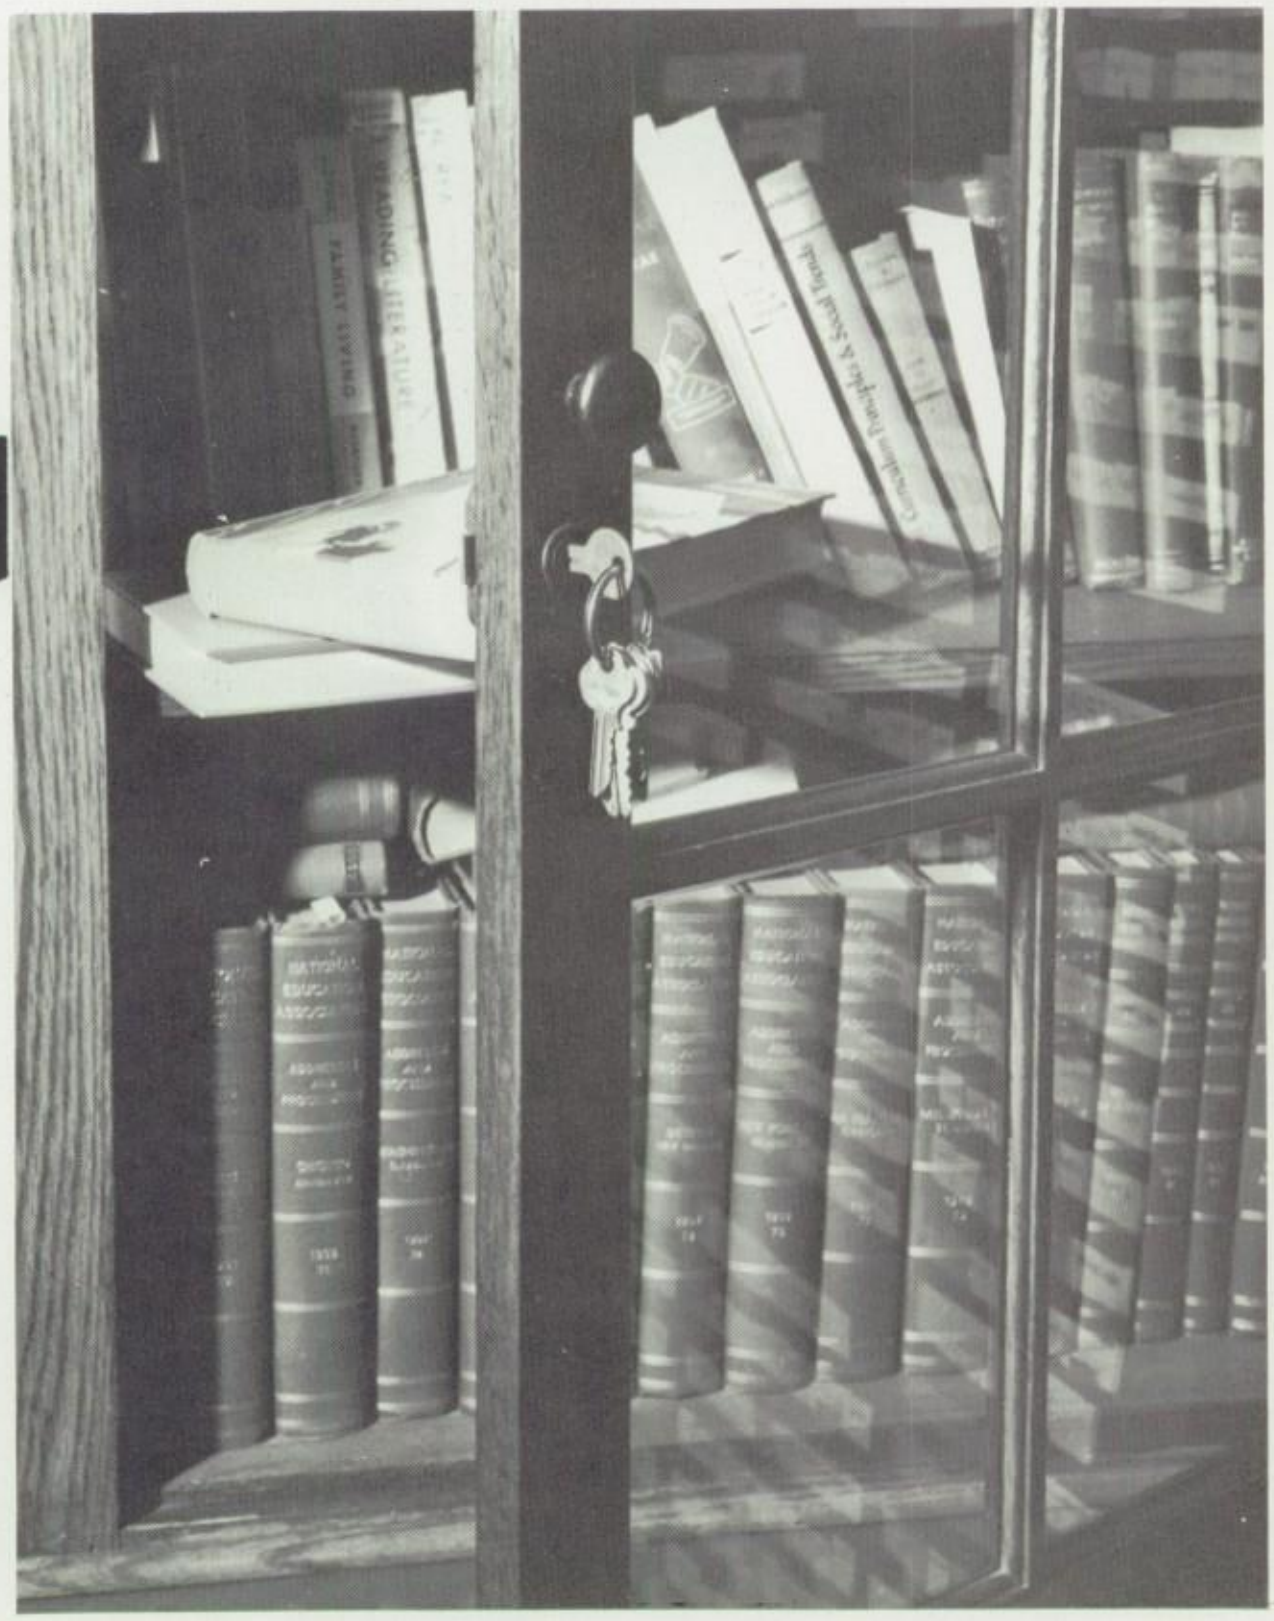
DEDICATION

Because she has become a part of Cochranton High School through her years of service to the student body, and because she possesses the qualities of an ideal teacher, the senior class of 1963 takes great pleasure in dedicating the 1963 CARDINAL to Mrs. Ruby K. McFadden.

ADMINISTRATION AND FACULTY



To the Class of 1963

As your student days at Cochranton High School come to a close, every member of the class will, no doubt, in retrospect ponder his efforts for the past twelve years. These have been, most of all, an opportunity through learning during the formative years of your life -- an exciting and satisfying adventure.

The impact of science and technology on America has been great. All progress, however, is not in the past. We all can look forward in our lifetime to even greater progress and advancements in most all fields. The Class of 1963 will be a part of the great future scientific and technological drama as it unfolds and develops. Noteworthy contributions might be made by members of this class.

Therefore, as you are about to assume your place in this panorama of things to come, I wish you well and bon voyage.

Harry W. Ray
Supervising Principal

Taking pictures, planning meetings, meeting deadlines, typing, proofreading, selling ads and subscriptions -- these and dozens of other chores are all necessary to produce a yearbook.

The administration, the faculty and the student body invite you to view our school through the following pages resulting from all of this work. In this publication you will not only find a cross section of our school but you will discover that the things we do here are many, varied and of a worthwhile nature, and that all of them have a recognized educational value.

If further inquiry were made regarding the many facets of education at Cochranton High, a spirit of progress and pride of achievement would soon become evident. Everyone is intent upon setting higher goals and establishing new records. More people are making the honor roll, than in years past. Class averages are higher, more seniors are planning post high school training and more students have straight A averages. Class and club activities have never been more successful or valuable to the students' experience.

Mr. Hamilton and the yearbook staff have worked in a diligent and serious manner to produce a publication in keeping with this new spirit of progress. It is quite evident that their efforts have been successful.

As principal of the high school I am proud to acknowledge the Cardinal Yearbook for 1963.

AVISCO

Now—The time you've been waiting for becomes a time to look back on... and build on.

Suddenly, those long-seeming school years are over. What was a daily way of life has become a memory.

This is as it should be. These memories have a purpose. They are the foundation for a future.

You will have more to say about this future of yours than you ever did about the years just past. You—not a teacher or a parent—will be making the decisions. Though teachers and parents can help you, still you're the responsible party.

Being the boss of your own future is a big job. No question about it. And because of this, it is also an exciting and satisfying experience.

American Viscose Corporation, as a member of this community, welcomes you in your new status as a graduate. We offer you all possible encouragement, and wish you success and satisfaction.

FAREWELL

Recorded on the pages of the 1963 CARDINAL are the activities, the fun, the achievements, and the service which the student body and the faculty of Cochranton High School have participated in during the past school year. We the staff, sincerely hope that this annual will recall to you the pleasant memories of those wonderful days spent at Cochranton High.

Seniors, although we know this is the end of your high school career we hope that the memories contained in the 1963 CARDINAL will make it much easier to say "Farewell" to your alma mater.
